All participants on stage , back stage or front of house are important to the society and all contribute to a good and successful production.. in June 2018 a blast of Italian sunshine will be on its way to East Yorkshire with the 'The Gondoliers'. This operetta is set in Venice and features such catchy numbers as 'Take a Pair of Sparkling Eyes' and 'Dance a Cachucha'. Although written in 1889, much of the plot chimes with our time: attempts to create a classless society and a nobleman of questionable character who has turned himself into a public limited company! Along the way are mistaken identities and romantic twists and turns. The show basks in the sunshine of Venice where the gondoliers of the title ply their trade. The production will be at Cottingham and Hornsea.
