

Hull Savoyards are on 6th December 2016 supporting the Macmillan Carol Concert at Beverley Minster in a fund raising Christmas concert for the charity. The annual Beverley Minster Christmas Carol Concert in support of Macmillan Cancer Support is now into it's 14th year. With high quality music and speakers followed by festive refreshments it's the perfect way to get into the festive spirit whilst supporting a worthwhile cause.

This years concert takes place commencing at 7.00pm on Tuesday 6th December 2016 at the Beverley Minster. Tickets are £12.50, available at the door or on line at www.beverleycarolconcert.co.uk

This will be the last concert of the year for Hull Savoyards who will be taking a short break and then re-commencing rehearsals on 12th January for the 2017 production of HMS Pinafore. If you are interested in performing in this savoy operetta then contact the secretary at secre
